PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, the President of the United States of America departed this life in the midst of the important labors of administration of his high office and after a long term of service involving many unusual conditions in the history of our nation and while serving as Commander in Chief of all our forces in the greatest war of all history:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M Q Sharpe, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim the period of two o'clock to three o'clock p.m., central war time, on Saturday the 14th day of April, 1945 as the hour of homage and respect to our departed President and Commander in Chief and do urge that throughout South Dakota business and activities of all kinds, excepting those considered to be important to the war effort of the nation, be suspended as a part of the funeral observance for the President which will be conducted in the White House during that hour.

(Great Seal)

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota to be affixed, this 13th day of April, 1945.

M Q SHARPE

Governor
